There are no translations available.

MT Resource, specializes in providing a full range of services in international and domestic freight forwarding service of cargoes of Russian, CIS and foreign clients. The company operates in the field of maritime, rail, road transportation, intermodal (multimodal) transport, river, air.

Delivery of all types of cargo to anywhere in the world

Development of optimal route of goods by any mode of transport

Execution and coordination of all necessary shipping documents

Handling operations

Warehousing services

Cargo insurance

Cargo protection

Daily monitoring and precise control of movement of cargo

MTR mission

The main purpose of MTR - development of an integrated transport and logistics infrastructure in the territory of Russia, CIS countries, which allows to create a competitive advantage to its customers and facilitate their integration into the global economic community.